Faith and Practice of Baltimore Yearly Meeting, the Twelfth Query: Environment

Are you concerned for responsible use of natural resources and their nurture for future generations? Do you try to avoid wasteful consumption and pollution? Do you seek to preserve the beauty and balance of God's world?

Faith and Practice of Baltimore Yearly Meeting, Advices for the Twelfth Query:

Humankind and the Environment

Population growth and technological abuses are threatening the planet. Millions of people are malnourished or starving, unable to obtain food, homeless. Our faith that there is that of God in every person calls us to concern over this tragic situation. Friends are advised to set the example in living simply so that others may have the wherewithal to live. We are called also to work for public policy aimed toward conserving the world's resources on one hand and sharing them fairly among all God's children on the other.

Civic Responsibility

Friends believe that the aim of government is to preserve a community in which justice, peace, good order and individual development are possible. Members of our Society are also citizens of the community and the nation. Quakerism is not intended to be a refuge from the disturbing events of our times, but rather a source of strength and support in facing them. The free institutions under which we live give many of our members a direct share in the responsibilities of government and in forming a healthy public opinion.

Friends have supported the state as long as its requirements have not opposed the leadings of the Inner Light. They have generally believed that:

...if any be called to serve the commonwealth in any public service, with cheerfulness it be undertaken, and in faithfulness be discharged unto God.

(Meeting of Quaker Elders at Balby, 1656)

Whether or not directly involved in government, we need to consider carefully our responsibilities in influencing legislation and educating fellow citizens on public issues. Friends should work with people in other churches and in the community to bring about desirable ends through the institutional resources of society.

From the beginning, Friends have found that loyalty to God results at times in refusal of the demands of the state, as in opposition to war and unjust laws, and have supported decisions of conscience taken by individual Friends. Before deciding on a course which involves civil disobedience, a Friend should consult with persons of trusted judgment who have sympathy with the individual's sense of duty. Clearness committees within the Meeting are valuable in such situations.

TRUSTEES FUNDING TO ATTEND QUAKER EVENTS

Trustees has funds to support children and adults who would like to attend Quaker gatherings, camps, and educational institutions. Members and regular attenders may apply at any time, and may be given at maximum one grant per calendar year. These funds are intended to supplement resources available to the participant from other sources. For more information and for the application form, please see our website page: <https://homewoodfriends.org/member-resources/scholarships/>.

Pat Tracey shares a legacy of her mother's creative gifts.

Happy December.

CORRESPONDENCE

Former attender Kathy Angell writes that she is “doing well in Bryn Mawr, PA outside Philly” and sends her greetings to Homewood Friends.

For those of you who recall our daycare center, here is a special message: I would just like to thank the congregation who hosted the basement daycare at your facility in the 1970's. As a child who needed the daycare, I had a safe place to be while my parents worked. I remember Miss Janet especially, but also John with the ponytail, and another lady whose name I can't recall. They taught me many songs and manners, fed me hot lunches, cared for my rabbit Foo Foo, and listened to me. I would not be the mother I am today without their influence. I know the daycare is no longer at your place of worship, but I thank you again for making it available to my family.

Sincerely,

Beth (Clement) Farnham (farnham.beth@gmail.com)

His response has been to create striking images of these events, which give new visual meaning to the situations. The 21 paintings portray people from Iraq, Lebanon, Central America, Germany, Belarus, Israel, Russia and Africa.

Exsul has made three films focusing on minorities: Women Between Worlds, New Roots, and A Circus Like No Other. At screenings, he engages audiences in discussions of the social issues of immigration and belonging to a minority. His website is exsulvanhelden.com.

This is a nourishing and engaging public witness and spiritual practice as friends join to hold out our Light of love: Black lives matter, cease fire, Love thy Neighbor: no exceptions, and No Hate.

WORLD QUAKER DAY, OCTOBER 6, 2019: A Call to Those Interested in Learning More about Quakers around the Globe

World Quaker Day, a project of the Friends World Committee for Consultation (FWCC), has been observed by the diverse communities of Friends from Australia to Finland and from Kenya to the United States for the last five years. The purpose is to recognize and celebrate the rich variety of manners of worship and culture along with the radically loving spirit that connects Friends around the world, one to another. Did you know that there are approximately 400,000 Friends around the world with nearly half of those residing in Kenya? Clearly, there is a very big world of Friends out there far beyond the borders of North America or the United Kingdom! If you would like to learn more about the world family of Friends, please see the FWCC website at World Quaker Day. And if you would like to participate in planning a World Quaker Day event at Homewood next October, please contact John McKusick at john.ca.mckusick@verizon.net.

FRIENDLY 8s SECOND ROUND SIGN-UP! Several of us have enjoyed getting to know each other in these intimate potluck gatherings that were organized by our Outreach Team. If you want to get to know more people in the Meeting, or if you missed the first round and want to join the fun, please sign up on the sheets in the meeting room. The potlucks will resume early in 2019.

GREEN ORGANIZING ACTION TEAM:
"GOAT NOAT" FOR DECEMBER 2018

"I'm dreaming of a green New Year" (sung to the tune of "White Christmas")

If you would like to make New Year resolutions to reduce your carbon footprint, increase the percentage of clean and renewable energy used in your home and community, and/or work for environmental justice in 2019, Homewood's Green Organizing Action Team (GOAT) would like to help you learn how to achieve these goals. GOAT will be conducting a survey to identify areas of strong interest for workshops, demonstrations, and discussions that will serve as springboards for personal, family, and community change in 2019. The survey, which will be available in paper (recycled, of course) and online formats will be unveiled at the Homewood holiday potluck dinner on Friday, December 14th. GOAT hopes that everyone who considers themselves part of the Homewood community will participate in the survey, which will be available from December 14th, 2018 to January 6th, 2019.

One Goat can Make a Huge Difference in a Family's Life

During December, GOAT will be collecting monetary donations to Heifer International toward the purchase of one (or more) goat(s). One goat donated to an agrarian family in Africa can substantially improve the nutritional and economic health of the family as well as increase agricultural output. In the words of Heifer International, "giving an animal to a family is like giving a small business. Animal donations are a way of giving a family a hand up and increased access to medical care, education, and a sustainable livelihood." Sponsorship for a goat is $130. We will pool our contributions to purchase one or more goats. However, individuals donating via check will receive a charitable donation document from Heifer International.

Committee members: Carol Beck, Caitlyn Behnke, Gary Gillespie, Cathy Hanson, Polly Heninger (clerk), Bess Keller, John McKusick, and Stephan Rogers. We are an open committee. Join us!

WICKER BASKET CONTRIBUTIONS Wicker Basket recipient for December is Paul's Place.

Their website explains, "Paul's Place is a catalyst and leader for change, improving the quality of life in the Southwest Baltimore communities. Paul's Place provides programs, services, and support that strengthen individuals and families, fostering hope, personal dignity and growth.... The individuals and families living in Southwest Baltimore City will have full access to high quality health care, education, employment, and housing along with the other support necessary for stability and self-sufficiency." Their website is <https://paulsplaceoutreach.org/>. Please join us in supporting their work.

Please consider making a regular Wicker Basket contribution. Recipients are chosen by the Baltimore Quaker Peace and Justice Committee (BQPJC), which meets on the fourth Sunday of each month. Everyone is welcome to attend. Find BQPJC on Facebook at <https://facebook.com/BQPJC>.

YES - Youth Empowered Society - is a local homeless youth drop-in center that Homewood supports. They are asking for furniture, coats, blankets, and donations; as the temperature gets colder, YES provides many youths with housing and drop in services. If you have donations, please bring them by YES office at 2315 N. Charles on Fridays or contact Nick Brooks at Nick@YesDropInCenter.org to arrange an alternative time.

FRIENDS HOUSE MAILING LIST: Friends House Retirement Community has asked Friends to consider sharing their email and/or postal addresses with them. Those who do so will receive up to three newsletters about Friends House's expansion effort. Those who elect to contribute may also receive future appeals. We have decided to do this on an opt-in basis, so please contact the office by email or phone if you are willing to have either or both addresses given to Friends House. If you are not so willing, please consider responding to their appeal: we will publish information about it as appropriate.

HOMEWOOD IS ON FACEBOOK AND INSTAGRAM

Remember that our committees and teams can share with the wider community our events and announcements on Facebook and Instagram!

Additionally, tag Homewood with any Facebook or Instagram posts with relevant things you are doing. We also have a hashtag #HomewoodQuakers.

CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE MEETING are needed and gratefully accepted; they support the maintenance of the Meeting and our contributions to designated service organizations. PayPal is now available on the Homewood Meeting website. Look for the word "Donate" in our Website's menu bar, which is near the top of every page. If you prefer to pay by check, it is very helpful for you to make arrangements for your bank to send regular checks. This method provides the Meeting with a predictable cash flow. Please make all checks payable to "Homewood Friends Meeting."

SIMPLE LUNCH: Everyone is welcome to lunch after meeting for worship; there is no charge. Please sign up on the Hospitality bulletin board in the dining room if you can provide simple lunch this month.

JOIN A COMMITTEE: Nominating Committee invites you to consider joining a committee; it's a great way to serve the Meeting and to get to know others in the community. Committee descriptions are available on the Homewood website at <https://homewoodfriends.org/member-resources/committees/>. Please contact Carol Beck, Mina Brunyate, Gary Gillespie, or Kevin-Douglas Olive for more information (contact information is in the Homewood directory online).

QUAKERS AND THE LARGER COMMUNITY

FRIENDS UNITED MEETING (FUM):

Meg and Arthur Boyd (members of Stony Run) will be serving as Living Letters for six months at Ramallah Friends School, helping with administration in the Quaker tradition, teaching, fundraising, and serving as Friendly presences. In their own words:

We have just begun a six-month period of service at Ramallah Friends School as “Living Letters” from Friends (Quakers) in the United States to Palestinians of all faith traditions. We’d like to tell you a bit about what we are doing here, and why we are doing it. ...

“But what will you do there?”

That is the first question friends ask of us. We will listen, rooted in love. We will be present with those we meet, amid the walls of separation, knowing their days hold distress and hardship we will not fully understand.

“But what leads you to do this?”

We first met the Head of School, Adrian Moody, when he visited the U.S. a year ago. As we listened to him speak about RFS, we were impressed with the vision and leadership he brings to the school. Although he is Catholic and most parents are Muslim, he spoke about how both he and the parents want the school’s Quaker values to be more evident at the school. The RFS School Board, the majority of whom are residents of Ramallah with world-wide education and work experience, needs strengthening in governing in the Quaker tradition. The Arabic-speaking youth need fluency in English to flourish in the all-English high school—and chances to practice while in middle school. Financial management and fundraising, as in all non-profit schools, need constant attention.

And so Adrian’s volunteer wish list continued. And each of us, Meg and Arthur, found ourselves thinking “I could do that.” Then, if that is true, came the thought, “We should offer to do that.”

“But can we?”

We listened to the Spirit moving in us. We asked our Friends Meeting to hold a “clearness committee” meeting with us to test our leading, and they thought us well suited to this calling. Then, as Friends say, way opened for us to do what God put before us.

Friends who have done periods of service such as this in parts of the world where people are under distress, hardship, and fear of violence, told us that regardless of what you hope to do, your greatest service will be to listen and to be present.

As we told friends about this leading, often came the question, “How can we help?”

Here is what we ask. Be present with us: think of us, pray for us and the Palestinians. As Friends say, “hold us in the Light.”

We’re covering our own expenses and contributing our time to this ministry, and the school is providing us with housing. In addition, we ask you to partner with us to support Ramallah Friends School. In particular, we invite you to support Adrian Moody as Head of School. He is released for service by Friends in the U.S., separately from the budget of the school, and he currently stands in need of more supporters. ...

Upon our return to the U.S., in March 2019, we would welcome invitations to speak to congregations and groups about our experiences. Interested? Email us, at arthur.m.boyd\(at\)gmail.com or meg.boyd.meyer\(at\)gmail.com.

THINKING ABOUT RACE (DECEMBER 2018): FGC Institutional Assessment

“For years, Friends of Color have told stories of racism and marginalization in their Monthly Meetings, at Gathering, in Committee Meetings, and at Central Committee. The stories include travel, hospitality, and many ‘peculiar’ traditions of Friends General Conference (FGC) and of the affiliated Yearly and Monthly Meetings. Some Friends of Color wonder why FGC needs to spend money on an assessment process when we have heard these stories. It is the hope of those Friends who have committed time, energy and resources to gathering this information that a historic review of the stories will provide a description of how deeply systemic racism is embedded in our culture. The stories, paired with a collection of qualitative and quantitative data collected during 2018, could not only help FGC Quakers of European Descent finally see the full complexity/depth of the problem but could inspire Friends to change how our language, our processes, and our unexamined traditions have pushed Friends of Color away from our community. This report reflects a desire for transformation that will strengthen our beloved community.

“... Vanessa Julye proposes white supremacy as a direct threat to living into blessed community where everyone has value.... White supremacy restricts the creation of a blessed community because it makes it difficult for people of color to be a part of the community. White supremacy is white dominance. In this culture, what is considered ‘American’ is really European-American culture. If you are a part of that culture and fit into that culture, you don’t notice it. It is invisible. If you accept a structure as normal, there’s no need to change it.”
