

Homewood Friends
Peace and Social Justice Committee
Minutes of Meeting June 9, 2019, 1 pm

Regrets were received from Jo Brown, Kathryn Munnell and Peter Phalen.

In attendance were Debbie Cooper, Jean Athey and Barbara Bezdek (clerking).

After a brief period of gathering worship, those present were prepared to approve the minutes of May meeting.

The notes from BQPJC potluck discussion on May 25, 2019 were distributed.

Business:

1. Nuclear Ban Treaty, June 18 event. We are all set for the meetup of area groups, at Homewood to hear traveling Friends Timmon Wallis and Vicki Elson discuss Nuclear Ban Treaty work and divestment strategies. Co-sponsors include Howard County Peace Action, Prevent Nuclear War Maryland, Maryland United for Peace and Justice, Peace Action Montgomery, Prince George's County Peace & Justice Coalition, Anne Arundel Peace Action.
  - Jean will bring cookies, Barbara will set up snack table.
  - Mina will circulate the final flyer (attached)
2. Re-entry aide for Returning Citizens – under development
  - a. Fall conference to address corrections officials and others: Barbara announced that Marylanders Alliance for Justice Reform (MAJR, www.m4jr.org) is planning a conference on prisoner re-entry/returning citizens policy in Maryland, in September. Phil Caroom and Bob Rhudy may seek help from Homewood, SR committees. Likely downtown.
  - b. PSJ Research Project/to divvy up.

Last month we realized we need to learn somewhat more about the form and extent of support/services for people returning to Baltimore from incarceration.

    - Printout of services in Baltimore City –pp 22-53 of RE-entry Resources Guide, National Re-entry Resource Center, csgjusticecenter.org/nrrc

- Very little immediate reception/hospitality
- Few resources especially tailored to returnees
- Many providers of substance abuse/mental health –
- Q, Peter, Michael Fell – do you know any of these, would you follow up re their aid to returning citizens?
- CALLS to get background, identify potential panelists for workshop I the fall: good bets appear to be
  - Out for Justice
  - Northwest One-Stop Career center (p.45)
  - Goodwill SEETTS program (p.32)
  - Possibly Micah House/GEDCO
- Additional ideas for self-education? Actions for HFM?, potential collaborators?

3. Baltimore Ceasefire November weekend coincides with Baltimore Yearly Meeting Interim Meeting. Jo is pursuing with the planning committee how to include showing Sage, the award-winning short film about Baltimore Ceasefire and Erikka Bridgeford. More to come.

4. Deepening our peace studies. Those present agreed that, however much we ultimately opt to do to develop peaceable materials, events, networking, or training opportunities – we should start with identifying the resources we possess.

a. In the Homewood library:

- i. Will someone check out the Library Committee digital list, is it organized by topic, searchable?
- ii. Let's start reading – peace, nonviolence and antiwar books and pamphlets are to the right of the office door panels.
- iii. Would we want to write occasional Peace Notes about what's here? Short reviews for newsletter or web page; plan to host a reading series within the meeting in the fall.

After a moment of closing worship, we concluded at 1:30 pm.
