Faith and Practice of Baltimore Yearly Meeting*, the Second Query: Meetings for Business

Are meetings for business held in a spirit of worship, understanding, and forbearance? When direction seems lacking, is this seen as a challenge to a more prayerful search for truth? Do we humbly set aside our own preconceived notions as to proper action, seeking instead Divine guidance as to the right course? Is the Meeting aware that it speaks not only through its actions but also through its failure to act? Do you participate regularly in meetings for business, discharge faithfully your committee responsibilities, and assume your share of financial support of the Meeting?

MOST OF OUR REGULARLY SCHEDULED ACTIVITIES

are meeting on Zoom until further notice. Below are the Zoom URLs and phone numbers. * The use of "virtual backgrounds" has been turned off for security. * These links should take you -- unless you're dialing in on a phone -- into the meetings without the need to enter the passcode separately.

“Our gracious Creator cares and provides for all his creatures. His tender mercies are over all his works; and so far as his love influences our minds, so far we become interested in his workmanship and feel a desire to take hold of every opportunity to lessen the distresses of the afflicted and increase the happiness of the creation. Here we have a prospect of one common interest from which our own is inseparable, that to turn all the treasures we possess into the channel of universal love becomes the business of our lives....”

John Woolman, 1763
