Faith and Practice of Baltimore Yearly Meeting, the Seventh Query: Caring for Others

Do you respect that of God in every person? Do you search yourself for and strive to eliminate prejudices such as those related to race, religion, gender, age, sexual orientation, and economic condition? In what ways do you accept and appreciate differences among your friends and associates? Do you avoid exploiting or manipulating others to accomplish ends, however worthy?

MOST OF OUR REGULARLY SCHEDULED

ACTIVITIES are meeting on Zoom until further notice. Below are the Zoom URLs and phone numbers. * The use of "virtual backgrounds" has been turned off for security. * These links should take you -- unless you're dialing in on a phone -- into the meetings without the need to enter the passcode separately.

All of us have been touched by the pandemic. There needs to be healing and we need to be tender with each other.

We encourage people to get together safely and as they feel comfortable. Some ways to re-establish connections with each other could include: asking someone to go for a walk, inviting people over for an outside gathering, or bringing a snack or a sandwich and eating in the garden or on the porch with others after Meeting for Worship.

Everyone is encouraged to greet and welcome newcomers. If you know someone who has not come to Meeting in a while, consider calling them. Let us take care of each other.
