The Meetinghouse is CLOSED again

Sadly, given the raging status of the pandemic, a decision has been made to suspend in-person Meeting for Worship & other events until further notice. We will, of course, continue with Zoom Meeting for Worship.

We understand the need for community, and the costs associated with prolonged isolation. We are developing more online events for Friends of all ages for the month. Details for some of these programs are in this newsletter. More will be posted in the silent announcements and/or by email to the relevant groups (e.g. First Day School families). Please stay tuned and join us online.

The building is closed to committees and renters. If you need to be in the Meetinghouse to get supplies, etc, please make arrangements with the office. We're happy to work something out.

WICKER BASKET CONTRIBUTIONS: The Wicker Basket recipient continues to be CARES. The following items are consistently needed: toothpaste, diapers (sizes 4,5 &6) and baby wipes, as well as household cleaners. Drop off times are Mondays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays 9:00 a.m.- noon, and Saturdays 10:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. CARES is located at the rear of St. Mary's Church, 5502 York Rd, 21212. You may also send checks.

CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE MEETING are needed and gratefully accepted, particularly during these difficult times when our rental income has disappeared. Contributions support the maintenance of the Meeting and our contributions to designated service organizations. PayPal is available on the Homewood Meeting website. Look for the word "Donate" in our Website's menu bar, which is near the top of every page. If you prefer to pay by check, it is very helpful for you to make arrangements for your bank to send regular checks. This method provides the Meeting with a predictable cash flow. Please make all checks payable to "Homewood Friends Meeting."

WORKING FOR CHANGE:

Even though Homewood's Change Group has been laid down for now, important work continues to support Homewood's approved commitment to anti-racism.

Homewood is a member of the local Black Lives Matter Interfaith Coalition (BLMIC.org). The new website will be advertising rallies which are multi-congregational, multiracial, interfaith. They provide an opportunity for Homewood members and the Meeting to build relationships outside our white-dominant patterns and space.

The Meeting for Healing format for the group will continue with 2-3 names of persons and a brief biography given into the silence sequentially in three groups: a) Names of those murdered in Baltimore and we hold family and friends in the Light; b) Names of persons arrested or convicted and in prison for murder; c) Unnamed persons touched by violence in Baltimore. If you have questions, please contact Susan Smith, Cathleen Hanson or Stan Becker.

QUAKER BOOK CLUB: Sunday, January 9 at 9:15 AM on Zoom. Please make sure you're using the updated Zoom link. Individuals who have participated in Quaker Book Club are invited to participate in a discussion about the future of the book club. Donna sent out surveys but only received a couple back. When we have tried to incorporate this discussion into our meetings, we have ended up spending too much time on our chosen text and running out of time. We have had dwindling participation and are wondering if we should continue, and if so, in what form? What kind of texts will we discuss? Who will lead? When is the best time to meet so more can be included? Please attend. Your thoughts are valuable. If you cannot attend, but have requests or suggestions, please email them to Donna dmckusick@icloud.com or the office.

EXPERIMENT WITH LIGHT (fourth Sunday): January 23, 9:00 AM on Zoom, led by Susan Russell Walters. Please make sure you're using the updated Zoom link.

WORK SESSION: POSTPONED. Will not be held on SATURDAY, Jan 8, 9 AM - 12 PM. It will be rescheduled when the pandemic allows.

ADULT EDUCATION: Two-Session Workshop: Thomas Kelly: Reflection on Life from the Center:

After a devastating personal crisis, Thomas Kelly had "the experience of Presence seeking him." He wrote out of his experience in words poetic and powerful about living Life from the Center.

This Zoom workshop will utilize the work of our member Kathleen Wilson (Quaker Thomas Kelly - Life From the Center). We will read and reflect on selected passages from Thomas Kelly utilizing the Lectio Divina method. Lectio divina is a form of meditation that dates back to early monastic communities. It was a method practiced by monks in their daily encounter with Scripture. It involves close reading of a text, followed by meditation, prayer and contemplation. The session will involve time for journaling and worship-sharing.

The two sessions are scheduled for:

-Monday January 10 7-8:30

-Monday, January 24 7-8:30

The workshop is designed for participation in both sessions: however, if you can only attend one or the other that is fine.

Facilitators: Sarah Bur & Kathleen Wilson

Questions: Contact Sarah Bur at sarahbur2@gmail.com Registration is requested, so that we can share materials in advance.

GREEN ORGANIZING ACTION TEAM:

“GOAT NOAT” FOR JANUARY 2022

2022 Legislative Session: Two Bills of Particular Interest

On January 12th, the Maryland General Assembly will convene for the 2022 legislative session. It is hard to know how the upcoming election in November 2022 will influence the political calculus of decision-making in the Assembly that runs for 90 days and closes on April 11th. GOAT, through its participation in Quaker Voice of Maryland (QVM) and the Chesapeake Climate Action Network (CCAN), will be keeping track of some key pieces of environmental legislation and seeking engagement from Homewood Friends Meeting. A top priority will be early passage of the Climate Solutions Now (CSN) Act. After failing to pass in the closing hours of the 2021 General Assembly, this comprehensive and multi faceted bill has garnered even stronger support. The strategy will be to pass the bills in both chambers and resolve any differences, early in the session. If the Governor chooses to veto the legislation, he will be required by law to do so during the session. The Assembly can then override the Governor’s veto before the session ends.

If this happens many observers believe that the Maryland Environmental Human Rights (MDEHR) Amendment has a better chance of passing the Assembly than ever before. If passed, the Amendment would be sent to the voters for a decision in the November 2022 General Election.

GOAT is very interested in and supportive of these efforts. Meeting for Worship with a Concern for Business heard from GOAT on 12/5/21. Renewing our commitment to support Climate Solutions Now – it was approved in 2021 – and sign onto a resolution in support of the Maryland Environmental Human Rights Amendment will be on the agenda on January 9th Meeting for Business. If you have questions or concerns, please contact Gary Gillespie, Clerk of GOAT, or John McKusick, GOAT member.

Other news from GOAT:

As part of the Centenary Celebration, we are working on an electronic pamphlet that will summarize and plot over time, the many improvements that Homewood – primarily the House and Grounds Committee – has made over the years to reduce our carbon footprint and increase the energy efficiency of the building.

The garden keeps on giving even as winter overtakes Maryland! While we may not be in the building for a while due to the raging omicron variant, the garden features some plants with an abundance of colorful berries. This person's (John's) favorite is American Beauty Berry with its gorgeous purple berries.

OTHER QUAKER EVENTS AND NOTICES

BARNEGAT QUAKERS: Please join the Barnegat Quakers on Sunday, January 16, 2022 at 7 PM Eastern US time for a Zoom presentation by Ali Mctar. Ali's topic is Quaker Activism at a Local Level: Mutual Aid, Town Politics, and News, and we are excited to have him as a speaker. More info here. Register at <https://tinyurl.com/QuakerActivism>.

Quakers pride themselves on having been on the right side of history. And we should. The Quakers were indeed at the forefront of nearly every significant social movement in the United States. However, I'd like to present and explore what it might mean for Friends today to be on the right side of history? How will future generations regard the contemporary Quakers in our moment of turmoil and deepening societal division? What does it mean to speak and live light today? I do not have the answers. But I hope to show how complicated the problems are and offer some openings from my experiences as an academic who studies early Quakerism and as a mutual aid and prison-abolition organizer. In the end, I hope we can discuss how New Jersey Friends, and the larger Society of Friends, might contribute to our political and social moment in ways that reflect our spirit-led lives

Thinking About Race – (January 2022) Overcoming Medical Bias

Medical bias can be deadly, by Damon Centola, in The Baltimore Sun, December 6, 2021

“In the largest study of its kind to date, a 2020 analysis of more than 3 million U.S. patients’ hospital admissions between 2012 and 2017 found that adults who are Black or from other underrepresented racial or ethnic groups received up to 10% fewer early treatments for heart problems than white patients. Medical bias according to race and gender is so powerful that even mega stars like Serena Williams have nearly died from it.

“Institutions including medical schools and hospitals have responded to the problem of bias with implicit bias training— the use of cognitive techniques to make people aware of their internalized assumptions about race and gender. But the data show that it doesn’t work. Being taught directly about one’s own internalized assumptions unfortunately doesn’t seem to alter behavior. So, what can we do about bias that is unconscious, pervasive and threatens the lives of millions of Americans?

“In a study published this month in the journal Nature Communications, my colleagues and I discovered a surprisingly effective answer: an online group reasoning technique known as networked collective intelligence, which basically means getting doctors to exchange treatment options with one another. Think of it as a group chat for specialists.

[The article then describes the new online group approach and its remarkable results.]

“While no single discovery or innovation can eradicate race and gender bias from medicine, using egalitarian networks to improve medical care could spark a badly needed paradigm shift, where we train future clinicians to seek answers through peer problem-solving networks rather than deferring to seniority. We have known for some time that biased norms in healthcare are reinforced and strengthened by traditional medical networks. But clinical networks can improve upon the traditional logic of medical authority by relying on collective intelligence, which can reduce flaws in clinical reasoning in a way individual approaches cannot.”

Damon Centola is a senior fellow at the Leonard Davis Institute of Health Economics, professor of communication, sociology, and engineering at the University of Pennsylvania and author, most recently, of “Change: How to Make Big Things Happen.”

This column is prepared by the BYM Working Group on Racism (WGR) and sent to the designated liaison at each local Meeting. The BYM WGR meets most months on the first Saturday, 10:00 am to 1:00 pm, currently via Zoom. If you would like to attend, contact the clerk at david.etheridge@verizon.net.

Faith and Practice of Baltimore Yearly Meeting*, the First Query: On Meeting for Worship*

Are meetings for worship held in expectant waiting for Divine guidance? Are Friends encouraged to share spiritual insights? Are special gifts of ministry recognized and encouraged? Do you come to meeting with heart and mind prepared? Are you careful not to disturb the spirit of the meeting by late arrival or in other ways?

Faith and Practice of Baltimore Yearly Meeting, Advices for the First Query:

Meeting for Worship

The meeting for worship is the heart of every Friends Meeting. Baltimore Yearly Meeting generally has unprogrammed worship based on waiting in silence, and founded on faith that human beings can commune directly with God. In expectant silence we strive to center inwardly. Each is aided by the seeking of others, so that worship becomes a corporate experience.

Friends approach the meeting for worship confidently, believing that God speaks directly to us, revealing Divine Will and guiding those who listen. Each worshiper becomes a listener ready to receive God's message, which may come in the silence or in spoken words. The divine manifests itself to individuals in many ways.

While Friends in the several branches have varying forms of worship, even unprogrammed Meetings have elements of accepted practice. All Friends seek to avoid the stultification which can arise from dependence on ritual and outward sacraments. The simplicity of Friends' worship results from an emphasis on the reality of the inward experience. Direct communion with God the experience of the Holy Spirit makes the observance of outward rites unnecessary.

Worship requires discipline of mind and heart, and heeding the Holy Spirit over and above our worldly concerns. Daily meditation and prayer, study of the Bible and other writings of spiritual inspiration, and striving to live each day in harmony with the Divine Will help to prepare minds and hearts for the consciousness of the presence of God in worship.

With diligence meet together, and with diligence wait to feel the Lord God to arise, to scatter and expel all that which is the cause of leanness and barrenness upon any soul; for it is the Lord must do it, and he will be waited upon in sincerity and fervency of Spirit; ...and let none be hasty to utter words, though manifest in the light in which ye wait upon the Lord; but still wait in silence, to know the power 2 working in you to bring forth the words, in the ministration of the eternal word of life to answer the life in all. (Stephen Crisp, 1663)

Vocal Ministry

Waiting upon the Holy Spirit in silent expectation and prayer is the basis of our meeting for worship. Vocal ministry should arise out of a sense of being inwardly moved to share a message aloud. Sometimes a message is not ripe yet, or comes clearly but is meant only for the person receiving it, not for the group. Some Friends are led to speak frequently, and others only rarely; yet the timid or brief message of one who seldom speaks may be as moving and helpful as that of a more practiced speaker. The experienced speaker should be watchful not to speak too often or at undue length. No Friend should come to meeting for worship with an intention to speak or not to speak.

The most satisfactory vocal ministry arises out of a leading that is felt in the silence so strongly that it cannot be ignored. It should be delivered with as few words as possible, yet as many as necessary. Vocal prayer offered on behalf of the gathered meeting can also bring us into closer harmony with God.
