Call or email the office to place an announcement.

Faith and Practice of Baltimore Yearly Meeting, the Ninth Query: The Social Order Do you promote social justice and make your life a testimony to fair dealing? Do you seek to understand and appreciate differing cultures and social values? Do you support fair treatment of all regardless of race, gender, age and other differences? Are you concerned for those in our society who are disadvantaged? Do you take your full share of civic responsibility by voting and giving service? Do you oppose the use of land, labor, technology & capital for human exploitation or in ways destructive to other living things?

SPECIAL NOTICES

NEW SPEAKERS: We will be using a new sound system starting on 10/8 at Meeting for Worship. We want all messages to be heard; we consider them gifts to the Meeting. Thanks to Andres Lobo for research and installation work.

VISUAL DIRECTORY: A request from our Outreach Team: Please send in profile pictures (simple headshots) to the office so they can be added to a visual directory.

GEDCO CARES FOOD PANTRY: Drop items in the box in the Homewood foyer. Requested items: canned fruits and vegetables, peanut butter. Any non-perishable food items are appreciated.

We do not...come alone to the meeting. For the needs of those within and without the meeting sit down with us. They sit down with us in the person of our bodies which connect us with the whole of the natural creation and every exchange of breath reveals our profound dependence on the rest of nature and discloses to us our responsibility for it. They sit down with us in the persons of those who actually sit on the benches with us, each of whom is the center of a world of their own and who yearns as I do for the great tendering, the new angle of vision, the regrouping within, that would respond to the deepest thing that we know.
