Faith and Practice of Baltimore Yearly Meeting, the Seventh Query: Caring for Others Do you respect that of God in every person? Do you search yourself for and strive to eliminate prejudices such as those related to race, religion, gender, age, sexual orientation, and economic condition? In what ways do you accept and appreciate differences among your friends and associates? Do you avoid exploiting or manipulating others to accomplish ends, however worthy?

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION COMMITTEE

1) First Day School Opening Day: 9/15 🌱

All are welcome to join us for an introductory gathering during meeting for worship and the launch of a new year. First Day School serves Kindergarten through 8th, so families with children in those grades are most encouraged to attend. This is a good time to invite new families who might be interested in attending Homewood. Contact Jen McCann with questions: jen_mccann@yahoo.com

2) Volunteers: RE is seeking help with children's programming. Volunteers to serve as second adult during First Day School can help us keep the program running each Sunday during the school year. Join us for as many or few Sundays as you might wish. Contact Jen McCann to sign up. We are also interested in adding a member or two to the committee if anyone feels a calling.

“The priest scoffed at us, and called us Quakers. But the Lord’s power was so over them, and the Word of life was declared in such authority and dread to them, that the priest fell a-trembling himself; and one of the people said, ‘Look how the priest trembles and shakes; he is turned a Quaker also’”

George Fox, 1651, from his autobiography
