Faith and Practice of Baltimore Yearly Meeting, the Sixth Query: Home and Family Do you make your home a place of affection where God's presence is felt? Do you practice family prayer? Do you share your deepest beliefs and interests with all in the family? Do you grow together through sharing prosperity and adversity? Can you keep a sense of humor and avoid taking yourself too seriously? Do you establish family standards including the mutual obligations of children and adults? Are you as children learning to be accountable for your own actions? Do you as parents help your children to grow in independence and responsibility? Do you consider the needs of grandparents and older members of the family circle?

UPCOMING

Happy Pride

6/14 and 6/15 (and all of Pride Month!)

Homewood is hosting a comfort station during the Pride Parade (Saturday 6/14) again this year, even though the parade has changed routes. We need more volunteers to help us keep the building open during the parade and the start of the party in the Dell, as well as staffing our tent at the Picnic in the Park (Druid Hill) on Sunday 6/15. See our Sign Up Genius for available spots. Contact Malachy with any questions.

MENDING MONDAYS: 6/16 from 6-7:30 PM Join crafty Friends for Mending Monday. Bring objects from home to mend + lean on collective wisdom plus pooled materials. Items could be: books, clothing, toys, home goods. Email marisa.dobson@gmail.com with your favorite snacks and what you need fixed and/or want to work on. Sponsored by our Green Organizing Action Team ().

BIPOC Dinner: 6/16 from 6-7:30 PM Homewood attenders who identify as Black, Indigenous, and/or People of Color are invited to a second annual Juneteenth fellowship dinner at the meetinghouse.

When we think that religion is what goes on in a building of recognizable ecclesiastical architecture, the damage comes in the perfectly natural human tendency to minimize religion in other places. When we think of religion as what transpires on Sunday morning, the harm lies in the tendency to suppose that what goes on at other times, in factories and offices, is not equally religious. When we think of religion as the professional responsibility of priests, clergymen, and rabbis, the major harm lies in the consequent minimizing of the religious responsibility of other men and women. The harm of too much localizing of religious responsibility in a few---however dedicated they may be---is that it gives the rank and file a freedom from responsibility which they ought not to be able to enjoy.
