Baltimore Yearly Meeting Faith and Practice

First Query: Meeting for Worship

Are meetings for worship held in expectant waiting for Divine guidance?

Are Friends encouraged to share spiritual insights?

Are special gifts of ministry recognized and encouraged?

Do you come to meeting with heart and mind prepared?

Are you careful not to disturb the spirit of the meeting by late arrival or in other ways?

1) Meeting for Worship The meeting for worship is the heart of every Friends Meeting. Baltimore Yearly Meeting generally has unprogrammed worship based on waiting in silence, and founded on faith that human beings can commune directly with God. In expectant silence we strive to center inwardly. Each is aided by the seeking of others, so that worship becomes a corporate experience.

Friends approach the meeting for worship confidently, believing that God speaks directly to us, revealing Divine Will and guiding those who listen. Each worshiper becomes a listener ready to receive God's message, which may come in the silence or in spoken words. [...]

Monthly Fast for Gaza

Third Thursday of Every Month

*F*ollowing the success of the first Fast for Gaza, fasting and fast breaking as a community will now be held every Third Thursday of the month in the dining room at 6pm.

On December 18, ten participants gathered in person and online to replicate the average daily 245 calorie intake of Palestinians living in Gaza. Participants fasted during the day and broke their fast together with a small meal of lentils before a period of worship. Gary Gillespie, who has diabetes, reflected on how low his blood sugar dropped and how the combination of lack of food and medical care can be deadly for Palestinians with diabetes. Participants described the worship, led by Sarah Bur, as deeply moving and meaningful. The fast also served as a fundraiser for American Friends Service Committee's relief efforts in Gaza and raised $535. (You can make a donation here: AFSC's Gaza relief fund)

Tragically, Israel has announced that starting January 1, 2026 they will block dozens of humanitarian agencies, including AFSC, from providing food, healthcare, mental health and disability services, and education to Gazans.

Join the next fast on January 15th which we will break together by gathering at 6 PM in the dining room and eating our small meal. Friends who want to support peace, justice, and equality in Palestine are invited to the fast, and any of the other events or meetings being arranged by the Spirit Led Action Group on Palestine and Israel.

From Tom Curtin, 12/24/25

as we engage this season celebrating the birth of a fragile hope a hope born without a home
a hope the mighty sought to snuff out a hope signaling the triumph of love let's celebrate this past year for the many occasions and different ways we have come together as midwives of love; being points of love in the darkness of hate and dismantlement may this past year be fertile grounds for an even more fruitful coming year in gratitude for the community of light, truth, and love that we have been to each other and for others as well in turning our hearts towards the terrors of the night, we have set our actions to the birthing of a new dawn

Saturday 1/17, 1:00-3:00 PM at the meetinghouse

Discernment Workshop

Are We Committed to Justice for All in Israel/Palestine?

*With a presentation by Steve Chase of Friends Meeting of Washington:
Reflections on Joining Apartheid-Free Communities Coalition*

Please Register

Steve Chase is a longtime Quaker activist, educator, and writer who serves as Outreach Coordinator for the Apartheid-Free Communities' Quaker Affinity Group. A member of Friends Meeting of Washington and BYM's Palestinian and Israeli Peace and Justice Working Group, Steve will speak to us about nurturing a sustainable peace by ending our complicity with the US-backed Israeli system of apartheid and explore how Quakers can work nonviolently for peace, justice, and equality for all Palestinians and Jewish Israelis.

Jewish safety is a real need throughout the world, but it can never be achieved through the ongoing destruction, domination, or dispossession of the Palestinian people and the repression of human rights advocates opposed to apartheid and genocide. Nor is a just peace brought closer by anti-colonial war crimes against civilians by armed Palestinian groups or demonizing all Jews for the crimes of the most openly racist and violent ruling coalition in Israel's history.

Quakers, if we are truly faithful, can contribute to the nonviolent movement for justice for all Palestinians and Jewish Israelis without succumbing to the temptations and sins of either anti-Jewish bigotry or anti-Palestinian racism. This requires a clear moral compass, deep discernment on history, power dynamics, ideology, and US policy. Steve will speak about his personal (and Friends Meeting of Washington's collective) discernment journey from a one-sided, parochial empathy to greater moral insight and action on human rights for all in Palestine/Israel. This will be followed by a Q&A session and small group reflections on three prepared queries.

Besides writing Letters to a Fellow Seeker: A Short Introduction to the Quaker Way, Steve is the author of two Pendle Hill pamphlets, including Boycott, Divestment, and Sanctions? A Quaker Zionist Rethinks Palestinian Rights. He is currently working on a new book entitled Seeking a Just Peace in Israel/Palestine: A Discernment Guide for Quakers (and Other People of Faith).

Martin Luther King Day of Service

From Kathy Rogers, clerk of our Community Building and Outreach Team:

I'm sharing my list of service opportunities for the upcoming Martin Luther King Day of Service on Monday Jan 19. For those who are interested and able, there are a number of local opportunities to participate in. It's the goal of CB&OT that Homewood Friends use holidays and events like this to engage with the wider community.

Friends School	Johns Hopkins	Kathy Rogers' groups
Friends School of Baltimore has a large event with numerous opportunities for all ages. It tends to fill up. Info and Registration Here	JHU has a list of a number of local opportunities. Some extend beyond just the holiday itself, if that's a better fit for you. More service opportunities here	Local groups I've worked with in prior years: >> Baltimore Hunger Project >> Believe in Tomorrow House >> My Dear Friend cards

At the Meetinghouse:

- >> BIPOC dinner at 6 PM, with our Friends of Color affinity group. Childcare available. RSVP here.
- >> There's space for one more white ally Friend to help serve and clean up for the dinner (from ~5-9 pm). See Kathy Rogers if you're interested.

Viva House is a Catholic Worker soup kitchen in West Baltimore that we support with monthly food bags and an annual MLK Day clothing drive.

Clothing drive 🧤❄️

Drop off winter clothing in the foyer by Sunday 1/18. Hats, gloves, and socks, new and lightly-used that will mostly go to men. We are supporting Viva House's MLK Day celebration for the housing insecure population they serve.

Monthly food support

As usual, drop those bags off in the small kitchen at the Meeting House.

Fill a reusable grocery bag with the following items (exact contents):

1 - box Cheerios 1 - jar jelly/jam 1 - can vegetables 1 - can soup	1 - jar peanut butter 1 - box spaghetti 1 - jar spaghetti sauce 1 - packet gravy mix	2 - Rolls Toilet Paper 2 - boxes mac & cheese 3 - cans meat (all in... 1 reusable bag)

GOAT's Noats

The new year will have a lot of opportunities for action and climate defense for all who follow and advocate for environmental issues. GOAT wants to keep you informed about some important events at Homewood and in Maryland.

Actually, the work of 2026 began in 2025 when a bill was introduced to fund a study of the impact of fossil fuels in Maryland. The fund was approved by both bodies in the General Assembly in early April 2025, but the governor vetoed it because of cost. Homewood joined a diverse and large group of organizations advocating for an override of the Governor's veto, after receiving pressure from a diverse and large group of organizations including Homewood. In December, Governor Wes Moore and Comptroller Brooke Lierman reached an agreement to fund the study in 2026. Both houses endorsed the override. Having the Governor's support was a huge "win" and means that Maryland could continue to advance support for a green agenda.

Part of Homewood's legislative voice is from support and affiliation with Chesapeake Climate Action Network (CCAN) and Quaker Voice of Maryland (QVM). These organizations share critical information about the legislative process and help Quakers in Maryland choose and participate in educational and advocacy programs.

Here are three ways to get involved this winter:

- Attend the 7th Annual Legislative Summit for Climate and Environment on 1/10 and 1/11. Participate in the workshops that interest you. Free. Please register.
- Identify your Maryland Delegate and State Senator including contact information by 1/14, when the General Assembly opens. Look up your representatives here!
- Participate in the next Death Café focusing on the impact of climate change on human health, occurring Saturday, February 14th at 2:00 PM in the Homewood Dining Room. Space is limited so register in advance. Details on how to register will be available in mid-January. Be on the lookout for an email.

There will be more action items to address later between now and the end of the General Assembly in mid-April. Did we mention that a Bottle Bill is likely to be one of the pieces of legislation in the session again?

For further information, contact the GOAT clerk, Gary Gillespie, or John McKusick.

Members of the Green Organizing Action Team are Andrea Judson, Gary Gillespie, Bess Keller, John McKusick, Rachael Neill, Thom Price, Heather Ravlin, Kathy Rogers, and Jamie Sumague. We invite you to join us for team meetings that are scheduled for the fourth Monday at 7:30 PM via Zoom.

Electrifying our Homes

Wednesday February 11, 7 pm at the Meetinghouse

Join us for this workshop on electrifying our homes. This session will cover strategies for electrification, focusing on building shell improvements and equipment, including HVAC, water heaters, stoves, and solar options. Incentives for market rate customers and programs for low-income households will also be discussed.

Thom Price is a Home Energy Auditor who has been helping people make their houses more comfortable, efficient, and green for 15 years, mostly within the Weatherization Assistance Program and more recently with EmPOWER MD. In the previous administration he was a Building Technologies Engineer with the US Dept. of Energy, working on decarbonization projects.

Andrea Judson is a resident of the Remington neighborhood. Andrea will share her experience of going all electric last summer, including answering questions about cost, logistics, and everything in between.

For more information contact Thom at gondolaguy@gmail.com or Andrea at andreajudson1@gmail.com

NATIONAL ZOOM CALL

From Exhaustion to Enthusiasm, Joyful Resistance in a Time of Tyranny

January 25, 2026 from 7:00 to 8:30 pm EST

Dear Friends,

We at the Quaker Call are pleased to continue to hold a spiritually grounded space for Friends to listen, share, and discern your call to witness for Truth during these dangerous, upsetting times. While the tide may be turning on the attacks against Truth coming out of Washington, we are clear that we must continue our witness with honesty and integrity. Thank you for being part of this journey.

Our next National Zoom Call will feature Phil Gulley, noted Quaker pastor, writer, and speaker. Phil will be bringing a message, "From Exhaustion to Enthusiasm: Joyful Resistance in a Time of Tyranny," followed by a time for questions, comments, and reflections.

We hope that you can join us. Click here to register.
